

Read and listen to Bienville House's recent guest speaker Dr. Clovis Maksoud

Hello Bienville House friends and supporters,

Using your generous donations, our organization recently brought Professor Clovis Maksoud to Louisiana, where he gave four public lectures in New Orleans and Baton Rouge and did three media appearances. Not bad for 87 years old.

You can listen to and read about Dr. Maksoud in Louisiana at the links below. He was on the radio statewide on the Jim Engster show briefly Thursday afternoon, appeared in the LSU student newspaper, and was this past week's guest on Baton Rouge Community Radio's Third Place program.

Appearance on the Jim Engster show, Thursday, November 13th:
